HUERTA WILL RESIGN TO TAKE FIELD

Diplomatic Circles Hear Report — Said That Resignation Will Be Effective First of the New Year.

Minister of Justice to Succeed Him — If Rebels Not Satisfied, War Will Go on — Battle at Line Is Near

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 27.—Enrique Gerostieta, minister of justice, will become President of Mexico early in the New Year, when General Huerta will take the field against all rebels who refuse to conform to this arrangement, according to reports received with credence by some diplomatic representatives in this city tonight.

Gerostieta will be named Minister of Foreign Affairs, according to the version of the story in circulation and General Huerta will retire from the presidency, in which case the foreign minister succeeds him.

Senor Gerostieta is well along in years. He was a lawyer at Monterey and was brought to the capital to take the portfolio of finance, but instead was appointed Minister of Justice.

MORE WARNINGS GIVEN

No Shooting Over Line—Terrazas to Pay Ransom—Japs Assured Of Safety

JUAREZ, Dec. 27.—Warnings were given today by U. S. troops to both Federals and rebels that if a battle occurs at Ojinaga there must be no firing across the border. The warning was sent to Presidio, on account of the advance of the rebel army from Chihuahua.

An agent of General Villa arrived today from Chihuahua to arrange for the release of Luis Terrazas Jr. who is held by Villa for ransom, said to be $250,000 gold. The father of Terrazas is said to have expressed willingness to pay the money, but has asked for a guarantee of his son's safe conduct to the U. S.

Japanese agents who feared Villa might show resentment to their countrymen in Mexico because Huerta had placed orders for arms in Japan, say they have received word from Mexico City that Japanese subjects will be protected by the British Vice Consul at Chihuahua. Villa had assured the Japanese he was not unfriendly to them.

On hearing his mother, father, wife and child had been burned to death by Federals at Torreon, a rebel soldier in Juarez went insane today. He was told his family had been killed because he was fighting with the rebels.

MEXICAN FUEL SHORT

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 27.—The railroads are again facing the prospect of a tie-up for lack of fuel oil. The interruption by rebels of the line between Tampico and San Luis Potosi, if maintained a week, will mean not a wheel turning on any portion of the National system, according to railroad officials.

GOOD HUERTA MOVE

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 27.—El Diario, the official paper, carried today a warning to foreign correspondents that of deportation as undesirable if they send out of Mexico alarming and false stories.

than that of the Federal government is being coined in Mexico by the rebels, according to passengers who arrived today on the steamer Newport. This money is being used to pay Rebel soldiers. Several mining plants have been pressed into service by the rebels for the manufacture of the coins which are said to have value of 75 cents gold.

STATE TROOPS WILL BE ASSIGNED DUTY ALONG THE BORDER

PHOENIX, Dec. 27.—That the United States war department contemplates asking the National Guard of Arizona and other states for border patrol in case of trouble with Mexico became known today from a very reliable source.

In case the regulars now stationed along the international line between the United States and Mexico are withdrawn for expediency purposes, several thousand members of the National Guard will be rushed to the border.

The war department has practically completed all plans whereby the guard can be assembled on the border after a very short notice.

The war department has practically completed all plans whereby the guard can be assembled on the border after a very short notice.

The territory to be guarded will be long the southern borders of Arizona, California, New Mexico and Texas. The National Guard of Arizona, Louisiana, Arkansas, California, New Mexico, Texas and possibly Colorado will be pressed into service for border patrol in case of an emergency.

There are 450 National Guard members in Arizona and many thousands in the seven states combined.

Not one portion of the border will suffer for want of protection. All along the international line the guard will be distributed. In Arizona the soldiers will be stationed principally at Yuma, Nogales, Naco and Douglas. The territory between these places will not suffer for protection would be needed in case of trouble with neighboring republic.

In war department circles, Arizona is in the southern department, which also embraces all the other states from which the guard will be summoned to do border patrol except California and Colorado.

Colorado is in the central department and California in the western. All the southern states except Louisiana, Arkansas and Texas are in the eastern department which also embraces the New England states.

While it could not be deduced from the source of information from which the above came, that the United States expects early trouble with Mexico, it shows that the government will not be unprepared.

For several weeks the war department has been getting into shape for any emergency. Many inspections have been made of the various National Guard companies in Arizona, New Mexico and other states and the government has taken up the matter of a mobilization point in Arizona in case of an outbreak.

Both Prescott and Tucson are favored for mobilization, with the former a little the strongest in the eyes of the officials. Plans for mobilization at Prescott have been drawn.

DEPORTATION OF MOYER IS LATEST STIR

Special Grand Jury to Take It Up — Secretary Wilson Appealed to—Arrest Made of Inflammatory Writers

Moyer Refuses Interviews — Reported as Maintaining First Story — McNaughton Denies Part in the Affair

CALUMET, Dec. 27.—The deportation of Charles H. Moyer will be investigated by the special grand jury when it resumes its sessions next Tuesday. Sheriff Cruz has begun investigation in response to telegrams from Governor Ferris and the special prosecutor.

The news of Moyer's departure did not become generally known in the strike region until Moyer reached Green Bay, Wis., today and told of his injuries. Warrants were served tonight on the business managers and a dozen or more employees of socialist newspapers at Hancock, the charges being "conspiracy to publish, mis-statements calculated to incite riot." The arrests are the result of articles published yesterday in which charges were made of misconduct of deputy sheriffs and others who tried to rescue victims of the Christmas eve disaster. The articles, according to translators, accused the rescuers of slugging mothers and fathers who tried to reach the hall where their children were dead or in peril and used the Finn equivalent of "murder" in its description of the disaster.

Preparations were pronounced complete tonight for the funeral services, which the W. F. M. will conduct over the 74 victims of the panic.

CHICAGO, Dec. 27.—Grand Jury investigation of the mobbing of Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, at Hancock, Mich. last night will be demanded at Houghton by O. N. Hilton, attorney for the federation when the body meets Tuesday. Hilton so said tonight.

Moyer's wound in the shoulder was inflicted by a bullet as shown by X-ray examination tonight. Apparently the only danger is in the possibility of blood poisoning.

Moyer is guarded from newspaper men at the hospital where he was taken. He would not be seen in reference to a denial of James McNaughton that he was with the mob at the railway station at Hancock and as charged by Moyer and that McNaughton searched Moyer, obtaining valuable papers. Moyer's assertion was made to reporters, who met his train at Corlies, Wis., and came with him to Chicago. Hilton says that McNaughton ordered Moyer out of the country and said he would hang him if he returned. He then searched Moyer, while two men, armed with guns, held him. According to Moyer the attack occurred about 8:10 and he was thrust aboard the train an hour later.

According to McNaughton's friends he was at his club at Calumet at 9:45 which was 18 miles away.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—Secretary Wilson of the Department of Labor was urged by C. E. Mahoney, vice president of the W. F. M., today to "do everything possible to bring about Federal investigation of alleged deportation of Moyer from Hancock last night."

In a telegram to the Secretary, Mahoney accused the Citizens Alliance of responsibility for the act. No decision was reached as to whether the government will act.

FUGITIVE KILLED. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 27.—Edward Hughes, alias David E. Allison, who escaped from jail last Wednesday, was shot and killed near Auburn today by Deputy Sheriff Fred Claassen. ## FRANCE IS WAITING FOR PROTECTION FOR WARES OF EXHIBITORS

PARIS, Dec. 27.—No appropriation for the Panama-Pacific exposition has been voted by the French parliament. Cause of the delay is understood to be a bill drawn by Thomas Ewing, U. S. commissioner of patents, which is pending before the U. S. senate, intended for the protection of models and designs of exhibitors.

Members of parliament express themselves as disposed to wait and see what congress does with the Ewing bill before taking into consideration the desire of the French government to have an initial allowance of $500,000.

CHICAGO, Dec. 27.—Joe Tinker said today "It looked as if he would Monday."

U. S. COMMISSIONERS SEND RESIGNATIONS TO HEADQUARTERS

U. S. Commissioner J. D. Taylor yesterday forwarded his resignation to the department at Washington, according to report received last night from Douglas, which said that the action taken by Judge Taylor accompanied similar action on the part of Commissioner James of Douglas.

It was said that the commissioners had declined to give other statements concerning their resignations than that they were of political cause and to be expected. Endeavor to locate Judge Taylor last night for further confirmation of the report, were without avail.

PLEAD GUILTY AND IS GIVEN TO GALLOWS

Within Week, Murderer of Montague and Robber of S. P. Trains Is Captured and His Fate Determined

Farris Is Real Name — Aged Parents and Wife Were to Have Been Spared Knowledge of His Fall by Bandit

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 27.—Hiding under the name of John Bostick, even after he passed virtually into the shadow of death, Ralph Farris, 31 year old train robber, who was sentenced today to be hanged, maintained the fictitious identity until told this afternoon that his parents, a crippled father and invalid mother, might come from Bakersfield and visit him before he starts, Monday, for the death house at San Quentin.

Bosticks spirit broke and he not only revealed his true name but declared the mysterious young woman who fitted unnamed through the case since Wednesday, was a girl he married while working as a waiter in Marion City, Iowa. He also declared he confessed the holdup at El Monte and the murder of Montague because he expected to escape the gallows. The sentence of death was passed by Judge Craig of the Superior Court, after legal proceedings of only 2 hrs. and 18 minutes. Farris said it shattered his hopes.

Until told that his parents knew of his predicament, he said he was prepared to go to death with both name and marriage a secret. Today when he appeared and pleaded guilty, he solemnly affirmed he was John Bostick, the name of an associate at Bakersfield which he appropriated.

Farris said he became a train robber because he needed money to enter the restaurant business. His criminal career started in San Francisco in 1908, when he robbed the room of a friend and was sent to a reform school, where he remained 10 months before being paroled. Previously he had gone to school in Los Angeles and Bakersfield, where his father, a former S. P. conductor, is a pumpman earning $70 a month. After leaving home he became a restaurant waiter and worked in Chicago, New York and Rochester. Thence he went to Marion City, Iowa.

"I made the trip home every year to see mother," he said, "and came from the east to San Francisco about a week before I robbed the train at Richmond, November 14, and got $400."

"But you said you were broke before you robbed the Sunset Express two weeks later," interrupted an interviewer. Farris ignored the interruption and gazed at the floor, a habit he had through the interview when he did not wish to answer a question.

"I pawned an overcoat for $2 to pay the fare to Pomona where I boarded the train. All I got was $105 and a diamond which I pawned for $75. The people robbed stated the loss was three times the actual. I suppose they thought to collect from the railroad."

He gave no information concerning his wife and once or twice a tear ran down his cheek when asked about her. "Perhaps your friends and the public generally, when your confession is known, together with the fact that you have waived all legal rights and in such a short time received sentence, will try to have the sentence commuted," was suggested. "Oh I don't know," he answered. "I hardly think so."

MOTHER RECOGNIZED PICTURE. BAKERSFIELD, Dec. 27.—James A. Parise, father of Ralph Farris, left for Los Angeles tonight, prepared to make a desperate fight to have his son's sentence of death changed to life imprisonment. The boy's mother, who identified the published picture of her son this morning, thus acquainting Sheriff Hammel, of Los Angeles county of Bosticks true name, suffered a nervous relapse and is under the care of a physician. Farris will attempt to prove his son acted in self defense in killing Montague, basing the contention on the fact that the son, who has worked for the railroad, recognized Montague and feared the latter was reaching for a gun.

DIES FROM POISON BY OWN HAND

J. P. Shea Went from Home to Tree in Yard and, Lying Down, Expired — Tried to Reach Child in Struggle

Well Known Miner Was Given to Spasms of Insanity—His Family Had Narrow Escape—Deed Planned

John P. Shea, known throughout the district during more than fifteen years, was found dead in the yard of his home near the Oliver shaft yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock. Discovery that Shea was dead was made by passing men who received no response to calls they gave to him in greeting. Going up to awaken him from the yard they believed he was taking, they instantly saw from his staring, glazed eyes that he was dead.

Suicide by the taking of some unknown poison during a spasm of temporary insanity, will probably be the verdict of the coroner's jury which has been called by Coroner Smith of the L. well precinct to sit upon the case tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

That the unfortunate man had been laboring under mental aberration for several days was the expressed belief of his wife last night. He felt that during the last three days the lives of their four children and her own life had been in great jeopardy. It is also the belief, in the light of his rash act, that Shea in his madness contemplated almost to the very last the destruction of one or more of his children. After drinking the fatal poison and going into the yard of the house to lie under a tree, he tried to crax his two youngest children to him, but alarmed at his appearance they ran away. He attempted to rise but was unable to do so.

John Shea was a man of large stature and great strength. Physically he was in robust health. His only trouble was with his eyes, which sustained injury by reason of a premature explosion in the Irish Muz shaft mine more than a dozen years ago. He afterwards became totally blind and for years went about the city sightless. Following his injury the C. & A. did all that was possible to aid him to recovery of his sight and in addition granted him a pension of $100 per month for life. About a year ago he underwent treatment which resulted in restoration of his sight. The recovery, however, was not sufficient to permit him of more than limited use of his eyes.

With the recovery of his sight it was the hope of his family and friends that he would be rid of fits of despondency to which he was subject, and during which in latter years his mind undoubtedly became unbalanced. On one of these occasions his condition became such that he was arrested and held for examination as to his sanity. Before the examination came about, Shea had recovered and was dismissed. His condition was such, however, that his wife feared to risk her life and her children with him, and separation came about. Several times these separations were terminated, but always with the same result.

After separation of more than a year, Shea was reunited with his family about a month ago. For a time all went well but a week ago Shea began to exhibit the well known signs of despondency with which his wife had become familiar. The last three days she is now confident that Shea had his mind fixed upon suicide and that he also contemplated that the members of his family should go with him.

Whether there will be a post mortem examination to determine the kind of poison taken by Shea, had not been determined last night. The time of the funeral has been fixed for 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, from the Catholic church, and if a post mortem examination is made it will probably occur some time today at the O. K. morgue, where the body lies.

John P. Shea was a native of Ireland. He came to this country when young and found his way west to the mining camps. He came to Bisbee from Colorado. Big hearted and genial when in rational mind, he had many friends in the district. His wife and four children are the sole survivors.
